

Tourist Farm - Čebron

You visited Tourism Čebron in village Preserje that is situated in the middle of Vipava Valley. On their farm is their restaurant Rahela, named after grandmother, where the seasonal homemade and local ingredients are used in the kitchen. They serve meat and fish. In warmer months they serve food on the beautiful terrace with the view on the valley.

They also produce wine and have their own vineyards. They have local sort zelen, malvazija, sauvignon, chardonnay and yellow muscat, cabernet sauvignon and merlot (rose). The wines accompany the variety of food on the table in best possible way. One can also buy wines, marmalade and other things in small store on the farm.

They also rent few rooms, and they will have more rooms and a pool in 2018.

The menu from the visit:

The prosciutto

Minestra primavera with nettle and walnut pesto

Wild garlic njoki with goulash from boar in crunchy bowl

Rolled pork with basilica, zucchini from the garden with prosciutto

Home made meta ice-cream with fresh berries